Join David McKee's beloved children's book character Elmer the Patchwork Elephant on a colourful art parade around Eastbourne Town Centre. Follow the trail to search for Elmer on this creative and vibrant sculpture adventure.

Each Elmer sculpture has been created by artists across the UK. Their designs have been inspired by one of their favourite world-famous artists.

Elmer loves visiting Eastbourne, and has even brought some Eastbourne-inspired friends. Can you find the Towner and Tennis Elmers?

ELMER IS DIFFERENT, ELMER IS PATCHWORK.

Start your Elmer experience by reading the classic picture book by David McKee, celebrating 35 years of friendship and acceptance in 2024!

The grey elephants all love him, but Elmer soon starts to wonder what it would be like to be just the same as them. Find out how Elmer learns to love his and the herd's true colours in this beloved children's classic.

You can pick up a copy of Elmer in all good bookshops, including Waterstones, WHSmith and Camilla's Bookshop as well as online, or why not go to your local library and find Elmer there!

CAN YOU SOLVE ELMER'S PUZZLE?

Find the letter hiding on each of the plaques on the Elmer sculptures. Write them down, then unscramble them to make a word...

1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10	11	12

I think the answer is...
